SPORTS IN HILO TOWN

Many Interesting Events For New Year's Day.

The big island is going to spread itself from a sporting standpoint on New Year's Day, horse racing, baseball and other sports being planned.

Horse racing, it will be remembered, once flourished in Honolulu, a track for that purpose being maintained in Kapiolani Park. Hilo is today the only place in the islands where fleet horses are raced for the love of the thing. The game is dead and buried in Honolulu. Maui, it is said, will hold no more meetings on account of lack of support. Kaula and its famed Kealia stable have given up racing, apparently for good and all.

The Hawaii Jockey Club announces that New Year's Day will be "observed" with races.

To stimulate sport and build up an interest in locally bred horses, several large ranches have entered a number of their best-bred horses. These are being trained at the Hoolulu Park track.

The advertisement in the Hilo papers reads, "They will be matched in races as nearly equal as can be and run honestly. No purses will be paid." Fancy running for the fun of the thing in Honolulu! How the local turfmen would howl!

Imagine running honest races in this old burg! Why Billy Cunningham would have a fit of blind staggers if he heard of it and those glorious steeds Cyclone and Lambo, fall down dead!

Among the horse which will compete in Hilo are:

Crazy Annie, Permanent, Lillian, Mack, General Arthur, Alpheus, Sleepy Head, St. Yusef, Harry, Waterford, Good Boy, Antidote, Philip, Punalua, Lillian, Tom.

A baseball game is expected between Hakalau and Hilo or two Hilo teams. Perhaps the most exciting event of the day will be an automobile race. Who said that Hilo was slow? Honolulu has yet to even talk of an automobile race.

Honokaa, not to be outdone by Hilo, is making arrangements for a red letter celebration of New Year's Day.

There will be races and sports during the day and at night there will be a grand invitational ball at the Lyceum. In the morning there will be a baseball game.

The program and purses are as follows:

- No. 1.—Japanese race, one-half mile, $25.
- No. 2.—Lunas' race, one-half mile, $40.
- No. 3.—Ladies' race, one-half mile, $15.
- No. 4.—Free-for-all, one-half mile, $100.
- No. 5.—Cowboy race, one-half mile, $25.
- No. 6.—Portuguese race, one-half mile, $15.
- No. 7.—Pony race, fourteen hands (limit), one-half mile, $30.

May Play Water Polo.

There is a movement on foot among local swimmers to organize a couple or more water polo teams in Honolulu.

Water polo is much like the game of basket ball, except that it is played in the water and a board is used as a goal instead of a basket. There are six men on each team, two forwards, a halfback, two backs and a goal keeper, lining up much as is done in basket ball.

The ball is thrown in the water by the referee and the play starts when he blows his whistle. There are two halves, each eight minutes of actual play; and the intermission between the halves is for five minutes. The ball is of rubber and not larger than nine inches nor smaller than eight inches in diameter. This must be worked along or near the surface of the water by one team and pushed up by the hand of one of the players until it touches the goal of the opponents. The goals are at opposite ends of the pool. They are eighteen inches from the surface of the water, are one foot wide and four feet long and are marked "goal" in large letters. To make a goal, the ball must be held against the goal by the hand. The team making the largest number of goals in the two halves wins the game.

As in basket ball or foot ball, there are many tricks, many little methods of team-work which make the game both interesting and exciting. Owing to the daring movements made in the water by the players, the game is often a spectacular and interesting one. Water polo should catch on here.

Sportlets.

The championship baseball game of the Lusitana Athletic Club league takes place next Sunday.

The sporting spirit is still alive in Hilo.

It looks like a struggle of giants today.

Coat football must be a deal dirtier than the local brand.

Hilo is to have an automobile race.

Mongoose if well treated make excellent pets.

Boxer Duffey says he is here to stay.

Hurrah! Big Bill Lang is billed to delight us once more.

What price the English Rugby game in Honolulu?

James Todhunter Sloan has suddenly cultivated a most retiring disposition. Time was, and not so very long ago, when the limelight delighted to shine on him and newspaper space was his to command.

McCoy challenges J. J. Corbett. Talk about voices from the dead!

Tom Tracy has lost another fight. Ye gods! They'll resuscitate hoary old Dan Creedon next.

Today's question is Mailes or Punahous? Next week it will be McFadden or Duffey?

The Lahainas and Honolulu play a game of baseball at Kilohana Park, Maui, on New Year's Day.

MAILES VS PUNAHOUS

Best Struggle of the Season Takes Place Today.

The Mailes and Punahous meet on the gridiron this afternoon for the second time this season.

On the first occasion the Punahous won by the score of 11 to 6.

Today's game will be played at the baseball grounds and will commence at 3 p. m., giving everyone a chance to eat their Christmas dinner comfortably. Berger's band will add to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Both teams are thoroughly on edge for today's great struggle, which means so much to both of them.

If the Mailes go down before the Punahous again their championship hopes go a glimmering. Should the Mailes win, a deciding game will have to be played on New Year's Day.

The Punahous won the first game with the Mailes easily, there is little doubt of that. But for a lucky touchdown, scored less than two minutes from the commencement of the game, the Mailes would have been shut out for thereafter they didn't get within a mile of scoring. Since then coach Benson has worked indefatigably with the team in his charge. Blaisdell, Coulter and Heilbron, will be seen in today's line up and will strengthen the eleven wonderfully.

Coach Reed has not allowed the Punahous to slack up on the strength of their victory. Conscientious training has been the rule and several new wrinkles have been introduced into the team's repertoire of plays.

The game will be a tight one but the Punahous look like winners. Their knowledge of the game, as a team, will count greatly in their favor when superior weight threatens to overwhelm them and that condition, which careful living in and out of season alone can bring, should stand them in good stead in the stress of this afternoon's contest.

Golf Balls Now Cheaper.

A well-known manufacturer of golf balls has decided to cut the price. In future his dollar ball will go for $6 a dozen, while the $7.50 variety will receive a $2 cut and the $6 brand will sell for $5 a dozen.

This is the first indication of a change for the better in the price of balls since the days when the solid gutta reigned supreme, when the best makes could be had from $3 to $4 per dozen. With the advent of the lively ball and the doubling of the price many amateurs found the game too expensive. Some decided to quit playing for a time, but the longer they waited the worse became the conditions, for instead of a reaction the trend continued to show an upward tendency.

Now that one of the manufacturers has cut the price it will be interesting to note what effect it will have upon rival concerns; which will probably either have to meet the price or suffer the consequences. Possibly they will get together and buy the unruly one out. At all events, golfers will be benefited for a time at least.

It remains to be seen if Hawaii will benefit by the reduced tariff.

McGovern has failed to show the color of his forfeit money for his fight with Nelson. The ex-Terrible Terry must have had his doubts.

CHRISTMAS LOVE NOTES.

(Addressed to the dearest woman in my world.)

BY ALATAU T. ATKINSON.

Accept, my darling, dearest wife,
A modest token of my love.
You have devoted your pure life to me;
Reward will come from heaven above.

Yes, dearest, I remember,
How e'er could I forget
The happy years we've spent;
Then, darling, do not fret,
Our love was heaven-sent,
You, bright eyes, must remember!

Well, sweeting, p'rhaps my last embrace
I give to thee, I worship thee;
Lie one short moment on my breast,
When none can see, where none can see;
'Tis where my loved one ought to rest;
Take, darling, now my fond embrace.

I have a loving heart for you:
What shall I say?
What shall I do?
Prostrate myself beneath your shoe?
I will do all I can,
I'll strive to be a man;
This is the offering that I give to you.

Now on this holy Christmas tide,
As joy bells ring,
The lovely thoughts none dare deride
We'll fervent sing:

"All glory be to God on high,
"And to the earth be peace,
"Good will henceforth from heaven to men,
"Begin and never cease.

Amen."
